Jedi and I and Raksuen-kun (T/N)

I WOULD LIKE YOU TO DRAW ME RAKSEN-
KUN (T/N).

Some day, the editor-in-chief of this magazine, who looks exactly like Jedi
from some Space
Opera play by some American, said:

RAKSEN-KUN IS LIKE THIS.

Character
(T/N) =

Like an imaginary character, like those on the calendar that the schoolgirls often hang up. How to put it ... Like those on promotion postcards
or like mascot characters, something like that.

YOU CAN ADD A PAIR OF SPEC-TACLES IN!

Is there some thing in common with paradise
..?

And that is how Raksuen-
kun (T/N)
came to life.

WELL
WELL NOT?

I always add spectacles, but wonder if the many of I added them in this time?

By the way, here's the Raksuen-kun (T/N) that the editor-in-chief came up with.

Yes, Jedi's hat.

HELLO Rakuen-kun (T/N)

Hello
Rakuen-kun (T/N).

tweet

HELLO.

What's wrong?

AT FIRST WE HAVE TO KINDA BE VERY PATIENT TO NOT TO TOUCH IT, UNTIL IT SWELLS SO MUCH, TO THE LIMIT, THEN POP IT! THE FEELING IS INDEED VERY SATISFYING.

NO, NOT THAT.

Why does it sound like...
